

Gentlemen of the BTC,

February 2, 2023

I'm going to start this week by suggesting that everyone mark their calendars for March 14th. That will be our annual St. Patrick's Day Dinner at Mama Vesuvio's @ 6:30 pm. We hope to see everyone there. If you are on the fence about attending may I remind you that there will be a complimentary open bar.

Now that we have entered February, I think it's a good time to talk a little golf. Opening Day is exactly 3 months from today (May 2nd) at Silver Lake. It will be a 10:00 shot gun start followed by a dinner at the course. Our Golf Chairman Larry Garetto has been working hard and is close but not quite ready to publish the full schedule. I can tell you however that there are a few new courses being introduced to the rotation this year that I really think everyone will enjoy. I won't expose too many of Larry's secrets but I will say that Cinder Ridge is one of the new courses being added this year.

In other golf news, Sam Ryder blew a 5-stroke lead in the final round of the Farmers Insurance Open this past weekend. Max Homa took home the $1,566,000 prize. I only mention this because little things bug me sometimes and when they describe a professional golfer's attire in the final round as fashion forward purple joggers with exposed ankles, I'm happy to see him blow a big lead. The big choke cost him about $1.2m in prize money.

Now onto a sport that is currently in season....Bowling. I was fortunate enough to win a couple of pots for a change this week. Mike Breier and Lee Kaz helped me win 1st and 2nd place doubles. I got 2nd place in the blind doubles with Jim Eppolito. Craig O'Reilly and Tom Kelly beat us by one pin. For top scores this week Doug Blyth (270) edged out Mike Heslop (267) for the high game of the week and Dave Blyth had this week's high series (738).

I do have to mention a bowling rarity. Greg Lewis left a split combination that I had never seen before. Greg bowled well (600+ series) but the thing I will remember most about bowling against Greg this week is the 2-5-10 spare that he left. Let that visual sink in.

It was nice to see a couple non bowling BTC members at the bowling alley this week. Dick Kerkstra was there. It was the first time I had the pleasure of meeting Dick. Also, I got to chat a little bit with Jim Musser. They may not be bowling with is now, but I was told that they are both really good bowlers. I also saw Andy Zilis and Bob Kennedy. I know Bob tried bowling and now he needs a new knee. I haven't seen Andy bowl but I would like to see what he's got.

Happy February Birthdays: Lou Ornoff (2), Frank Carioti (5), Roger Byrnes (9), Dave Blyth (12), Dan Blyth (12), Bob DeFalco (13), Ben Tutka (13), Gary Bybee (15), Marv Huddleston (16), Ed Kern (18), Doug Blyth (22), Gar Ward (23), Don Franko (16), Steve Anderson (26), Charles Pettrone (28). Let me know if I missed anyone.

Happy new year from your President!

A few things worth mentioning. We have a Saint Patrick's Day dinner at Mama Vesuvio's on March 14th at 6:30. Hope to see everyone there.

Golf news. The golf chairman (my dad) has let me know that he is almost done with golf schedule. A few new courses this year such as Cinder Ridge and Bolingbrook and a few more he wants to keep me guessing.

He needs people to let him know about their 2-man teams and if they want to be in the Club Championship which is sponsored by the club. If possible, bring their 2-man money to the Saint Pat's party.

Also, he wants to know if anyone would like to revive the 2-day Lake Geneva golf trip. It would be on Tuesday and Wednesday July 11th and 12th. If there is enough interest, it will be a BTC event and if not enough people are interested, he will book a course for the 11th instead. The cost would be around $ 220 which includes golf and prize money. Rooms are available which he has held at Harbor Shores. The room is 2 beds for $220 plus tax - no resort fee.

With that being said hope everyone is enjoying the new year and see you at the Saint Pat's party.

Thanks
Peter Garetto

I will have the dates for the Brosius Doubles at bowling this week, I hoped to have them set last week, but am verifying some scheduling and will be able to announce them at bowling this coming Tuesday! For new bowlers the Brosius Doubles which is a 2-week doubles event, that you can get in with as many different partners as you want. The tournament runs 2 weeks during regular bowling, winners are the teams that have the most pins by adding the two weeks together. Have a Great Weekend – See you Tuesday!
